With Special Thanks to:

The Idaho Transportation Board for their support of public transportation in Idaho.

Ron Cole and Roger Cassins of ITD's Information Services Section, for their extraordinary effort in producing the Geographic Information System maps.

The Public Transportation Advisory Council and the Regional Public Transportation Advisory Committees (Regions 1-6) for their review and input on study processes and results.

And finally, to all the public and private transportation providers that supplied the Study Team with operational and financial data.
